

Audiometry Tests

Hearing is a critical part of a child's social, emotional, and cognitive development. Even a mild or partial hearing loss can affect his / her ability to develop speech and language properly.

For this reason, Apollo Spectra provided hearing tests for our children by trained Audiologists and hospital staff.

