

Library Day

On Friday, August 7, 2015 children of the Primary Department were encouraged to read silently by the librarian. Story Telling Session along with Dramatisation was carried out. Also, children were made to read aloud depicting the importance of 'The Library Day' which happens to fall on Sunday 9th August. Ebooks were also read out to the children by the librarian.

